A woman with long brown hair, wearing dark sunglasses, a white long-sleeved button-down shirt with a small black patch on the left sleeve, and black shorts, stands in the foreground. She is looking off to the side. Behind her is a large, ornate, multi-story building with many windows and arched doorways. The scene is set on a city street with a blue sky. The word "On" is written in a white, cursive font in the center of the image.

A photograph of a group of people, likely a dance crew or a group of friends, posing in a circle. They are wearing white t-shirts and dark pants. The image is heavily blurred, giving it a sense of motion and energy. The Adidas logo is overlaid in the center of the image.

“The time has come” for

I directed the new Imagefilm for Kitzbühel Tourism which also won several awards, including the Cannes Corporate Award in Gold. These pictures were taken during the shooting.

A dramatic winter landscape featuring a modern, angular building with a light-colored, textured facade. The building is partially obscured by a dark, silhouetted foreground element. The background is a dense forest of snow-covered evergreen trees, with a mountain peak visible in the distance under a dark, cloudy sky. The word "Audi" is written in a white, elegant script font across the center of the image.
